

Forget Everything.

Can we pretend for one second that we are together.

What's the point of keeping my feelings at bay,

It takes a lot of me, To get the nerve to wake up, every day.

And what if I don't, Would you even care, Would you even care.

Forget everything that we have done. Erase me from your memory.

I can't remember the last time I saw you smile,

It's gone, Before you know it, You can't let go of something you've never had, It's ash until you burn it, I hope I never see you again.

Forget all negative past things. It is not worthy to keep negative things in the past. We will be free from carrying our old negative baggage.
