

Buddhahood

Buddhahood is a state free of all obstruction to knowledge and disturbing emotions. It is a state in which the mind is fully evolved.

Buddhahood - Enlightenment

In Buddhism, Buddha refers to one who has become awakened through their own efforts and insight, without a teacher to point out the dharma. Buddhahood is the state of an enlightened being, who having found the path of cessation of suffering, is in the state of "No-more-Learning".

Buddhism consider Buddhahood to be a universal and innate property of absolute wisdom. This wisdom is revealed in a person's current lifetime through Buddhist practice, without any specific relinquishment of pleasures or "earthly desires".

Buddhahood

What are the Buddhist Beliefs ?

The Buddhists believe the two laws of nature;

1) The Law of Impermanence

2) The Law of KARMA. When we die, we will carry our own KIA (Karmic Imprints Algorithm) with us.

Buddhahood - Attainment

The Buddhahood is not reserved only for chosen people or for supernatural beings. Anyone can become a Buddha. No founder of any other religion ever said that his followers can have the opportunity or potentiality to attain the same position as the founder. Attaining Buddhahood is the most difficult task a person can pursue in this world. One must work hard by sacrificing one's worldly pleasures. One has to develop and purify one's mind from all evil thoughts in order to obtain this Enlightenment. It will take innumerable births for a person to purify himself and to develop his mind in order to become a Buddha.
