

A serene sunset over a lake. The sky is filled with dramatic, golden-orange clouds. In the foreground, a seagull stands on a rock. In the middle ground, a person is silhouetted on a rock. The water reflects the warm colors of the sunset. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

2-7) The Ten Commandments

Mindful Wisdom

Mind Enlightenment

2-7-1) The Ten Commandments of The Mind Enlightenment

Source; 명심보감 Myung Sim Bo Kam (Treasure Book of Mind Setting)

1. A blessing arises out of integrity and frugality.
2. A virtue arises out of lowering oneself and humbleness.
3. A way of Awakening arises out of quietness and easiness.
4. A life arises out of enlightenment and brightness.
5. An agony arises out of greed.
6. A calamity arises out of avarice.
7. A fault arises out of carelessness and arrogance.
8. A sin arises out of being not righteous.
9. A misfortune arises out of harming others.
10. A karmic blessing arises out of being harmed by others.

2-7=2) The Ten Commandments of MindPower Business Source; by Bo Barron, CCIM

- 1.Thou shalt have a great attitude. Great results always begin and end with a person creating and maintaining a great attitude.
- 2.Thou shalt always believe in thyself. Believing in yourself is fundamental to building trust, persistence and self confidence.
- 3.Thou shalt operate within your knowledge and imagination. Work within your ability level. Understand how you do business and maintain your progress according to your personal style.
- 4.Thou shalt prioritize projects.
- 5.Thou shalt work with patience. Tenacity, sincerity and keeping your composure ensures that you will work with an emotional balance.
- 6.Thou shalt commit to every deal. Commitment to every deal gives you a chance to address every transaction with full intent and purposefulness..
- 7.Thou shalt keep the game of business simple. The simplicity of your thoughts, flexibility and specificity of your intentions lead to greater efficiency and more consistent earnings.
- 8.Thou shalt work with reasonable expectations. Expectations that are too high interfere with simply working your best.
- 9.Thou shalt work with trust. Trust is the conscious letting go of over controlling tendencies of having to be perfect.
- 10.Thou shalt never, ever give up. Never giving up is about having emotional and mental resolve that suggests you won't quit or give in. You will give your best effort on each transaction until the very end.

2-7-3) The Ten Commandments of 3 dimensions of Mind

1. Philosophy – “A is A” (Aristotle)
2. Philosophy – “Cause and Effects” (Socrates)
3. Philosophy – “Influence” (Plato)
4. Environment – Natural
5. Environment – Out of the Rut
6. Environment – Do not sanction incompetence
7. Force – Idea / Vision
8. Force – Ability
9. Force – Execution
10. Oneness – A sound force with a sound philosophy at a sound environment.

The Ten Commandments

The End

